

I'm writing to oppose the weakening of Indiana's law that protects me from unwanted phone calls.

I wish to express my disgust at the CBA's attempts to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers.

If I wished to speak to anybody I currently have a business relationship with, I would call them myself.

HELP US PROTECT OUR FREE TIME FROM UNWANTED PHONE CALLS!